MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS SINCE 1973

KEYNOTES

*Dr. Douglas
Marlowe*

Douglas Marlowe is Senior Scientific Consultant at the National Association of Drug Courts Professionals, Senior Science and Policy Advisor for Alcohol Monitoring Systems, and a faculty member at the Global Institute for Forensic Research. Previously he was Chief of Science, Law and Policy for NADCP and Director of Law and Ethics Research at the Treatment Research Institute. He also served as Adjunct Associate Professor of Psychiatry at the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine. A lawyer and clinical psychologist, Dr. Marlowe focused on the impact of coercion in substance use disorder treatment, effects of drug courts and other rehabilitation programs for persons with substance use disorders involved in the justice system, and behavioral treatment for persons with substance use disorders and criminal involvement. He has published over 175 articles, monographs, books, and book chapters on correctional rehabilitation, forensic psychology, and treatment of substance use disorders.

Dr. Edward Latessa

Edward Latessa received his PhD from Ohio State University and is Director and Professor of the School of Criminal Justice at the University of Cincinnati. Dr. Latessa has published over 170 works in the area of criminal justice, corrections, and juvenile justice. He is co-author of eight books including What Works (and Doesn't) in Reducing Recidivism, Corrections in the Community, and Corrections in America. Professor Latessa has directed over 195 funded research projects including studies of day reporting centers, juvenile justice programs, drug courts, prison programs, intensive supervision programs, halfway houses, and drug programs. He and his staff have also assessed over 1,000 correctional programs throughout the United States, and he has provided assistance and workshops in forty-eight states. He has received numerous awards in recognition of his contributions to field, and in 2013 he was identified as one of the most innovative people in criminal justice by a national survey conducted by the Center for Court Innovation in partnership with the Bureau of Justice Assistance and the U.S. Department of Justice.

*Justice Evelyn
Lundberg Stratton (Retired)*

Evelyn Lundberg Stratton, retired from the Supreme Court of Ohio after 23 years in the judiciary to pursue criminal justice reforms, particularly as they relate to mental health, juveniles, and veterans. She earned a Juris Doctor degree from The Ohio State University College of Law and began her legal career as a trial lawyer in the courtrooms of Central Ohio. In 1989, she was the first woman to be elected Judge of the Franklin County Common Pleas Court, where she became known as “The Velvet Hammer” for her approach to sentencing in serious felony cases. Her success on the trial bench led to an appointment in 1996 to the Supreme Court of Ohio, where she was elected to a third term in 2008. Stratton believes that the courts, in partnership with the mental health system, can affect positive change in the lives of many defendants whose mental illness has led to criminal activity. To that end, she formed the Supreme Court of Ohio Advisory Committee on Mental Illness & the Courts, which was composed of mental health, law enforcement and criminal justice professionals who were dedicated to mental health initiatives in the court system. That committee has now merged into the Attorney General Task Force on Mental Illness and Criminal Justice, and she still serves as co-chair along with Attorney General Mike DeWine. Nationally, Stratton is a co-founder and former co-chair of the Judges’ Leadership Initiative, a professional association that supports cooperative mental health programs in the criminal justice system. Her latest focus in Ohio and nationally is on establishing veterans courts to help those returning veterans with Post Traumatic Stress, Traumatic Brain Injury and other issues, whose problems may lead to involvement in the criminal justice system. Since retiring from the bench, she works through EStratton Consulting, LLC on criminal justice reforms, particularly focusing on engaging the judges in different states in these reform efforts. She is also Of Counsel to a major Ohio law firm, Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP. Stratton is the wife of John A. Lundberg III, and the mother
