MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS SINCE 1973

2019 KEYNOTES

Dr. Jacqui Linder

Dr. Jacqui Linder is a registered psychologist and certified Clinical Traumatologist who completed her doctoral dissertation at Sofia University in the USA. She is the CEO of a trauma institute in Edmonton, Alberta as well as Clinical Director of a children's residential trauma recovery program. Dr. Linder is also a professor of psychology and senior administration at City University in Edmonton, Alberta. Dr. Linder founded the Chrysalis Anti-Human Trafficking Network in 2010 and Canada's National Roundtable on Human Trafficking the following year. In 2011, she also co-founded Freedom Relay Canada, an annual education and fundraising initiative for survivors of human trafficking and exploitation. In 2013, Dr. Linder developed and launched Canada's first national human trafficking investigators forum, an inter-provincial initiative designed to connect law enforcement personnel both nationally and internationally. She is an experienced facilitator and has conducted workshops across Canada on the neurobiology of PTSD, trauma recovery, stress management, burnout, grief & loss, psychological first aid, and therapeutic breathwork. Dr. Linder is an internationally recognized expert on the psychological profiling of survivors of human trafficking. She has worked with a wide range of populations and consults for a number of NGO's and law enforcement agencies nationally and internationally. Her professional affiliations include the College of Alberta Psychologists, the Psychological Association of Alberta, the American Psychological Association, the International Society for Traumatic Stress Studies, and the National Anger Management Association.

Dr. Erin Winstanley

Erin Winstanley received her PhD from the Bloomberg School of Public Health at Johns Hopkins University and a MA in Sociology from the University of Illinois at Chicago. She is an Associate Professor in the Departments of Neuroscience and Behavioral Health & Psychiatry at West Virginia University. Dr. Winstanley's current research is focused on reducing the morbidity and mortality associated with the opioid epidemic as well as the use of technology to improve access and quality of behavioral health services. Her emphasis is on the dissemination/implementation of evidence-based practices to improve outcomes for individuals with opioid use disorders. Dr. Winstanley has served as principal, co-investigator, or consultant on several Ohio-focused research projects including projects related to naloxone for offenders and hepatitis prevention. Dr. Winstanley has published numerous works in professional journals including Substance Abuse, Addiction, Journal of Addictive Diseases, Journal of Addiction Medicine, Drug and Alcohol Dependence, and American Journal of Public Health.
