

Training That Makes a Difference

WHY WON'T THEY STOP?: UNDERSTANDING THE CULTURE OF ADDICTION

(9 a.m.—12:15 p.m.)

- ◆ Why won't they stop is a common question one hears in discussions regarding substance use disorders, and it is the challenge for the community corrections professionals and treatment providers that work with this population. The morning session will focus on the culture of addiction and why people who are addicted just cannot stop using. The training will address a variety of etiologies, treatment modalities, and cultural considerations in effective treatment.

ETHICAL DILEMMAS IN OFFENDER TREATMENT

(1 p.m.- 4:15 p.m.)

- ◆ Ethical concerns that can lead to unethical behaviors are an overwhelming concern in the criminal justice system and addiction treatment. This session will focus on defining ethical dilemmas, describe ethical principles for treatment professionals, and identify tools of decision making to assist with ethical dilemmas.
- ◆ These sessions are appropriate for community corrections, criminal justice and behavioral health professionals who are interested in cognitive therapy and intervention with the community corrections and criminal-justice involved populations.
